Mother Charged After Allowing Underage Drinking Party

WARRENVILLE, IL – On Saturday, September 6, 2014, Warrenville Police Officers responded to a medic assist call at the intersection of Sanchez Drive and Greenbrook Court. Upon arrival, officers located an intoxicated female juvenile. Investigation revealed that the juvenile had walked away from a birthday party in the 30 W 100 block of Elmwood Court. Officers identified the house and while speaking with the adult resident, Mary Andrade, DOB: 12/09/67, observed several other juveniles that appeared to have been drinking. Andrade admitted to allowing her daughter and her friends to consume alcohol. On Wednesday, September 10, 2014, Andrade turned herself in at the Warrenville Police Department and was charged with a Class A misdemeanor for violating Illinois Social Host law. A Class A misdemeanor carries a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine and/or one year incarceration. In total, four juveniles were issued ordinance tickets for Illegal Possession/Consumption of Alcohol by a Minor. All juveniles were released on individual bond(s) and turned over to their parent.
